the very lowest degeneracy. Also the story of the Topeka crime for which he is held, has been circulated through the prison.

Threats on Every Side. A representative of the State Jour-nal passed through the prison shortly after the near riot and on every side he heard threats against Bissell's life.

Depend on Souther.

Everything depends upon Preston Souther, a drug elerk in the Oxford botel at Topeka, who expected here tomorrow morning to ascertain whether Fred Bissell is the man who called at the drug store betwee 5 and 6 o'clock on the morning of the murder and nurchased a bottle of iodine, a packag of Red Cross bandages and a bottle of wiseline. On account of being unable is stop the train at Lawrence has toget Souther was carried on to Kansas City and returned to Topeka this morning. He will probably arrive here tomorrow morning. Wall Unfil Trial Bissell,

For two hours this morning Bissell was questioned closer than ever before concerning his actions on the morning of the murder. He answered aff questions and nothing that is of any consequence was ascertained.
After he had been questioned about an hour and a haif, Bissell said.

Now I'm going to answer questions
one-half hour longer and then I'm not soing to say, a word until the trial.

Bissell has regained his composure. The danger he is facing at the prison here was told to him late this morning. It apparently had no effect whatever.

Wild Ride Last Night.

Bissell arrived at Lansing at midnight following a wild ride from Lawrence in which the car occupied by Sheriff Kiene, Robert Miler. Topeka police officer, a State Journal Preporter and Bissell was chased for miles through the night by an automobile which hung closely to the rear.

He may be returned officially to the prison for violating his parole.

Klene Was Out Ahead.

A felegram sent by Governor Capper giving to Sheriff Kiene advice was never received by the Shawnee county sheriff, Kiene had acted apparently before the governor had thought of the advice and was well on his way to Lansing with the prisoner when the telegram reached Lawrence.

Souther has positively identified the bottle of iodine found in the house at Fifth and Taylor atreets on the morning of the murder.
